About 826 New Orleans: 826 New Orleans is a nonprofit organization. It is our mission to develop a culture of literacy in New Orleans, inspiring the next generation of leaders to be effective communicators, critical thinkers, and civic-minded residents. We offer free writing programs and publishing opportunities at our Youth Writing Center in the 7th Ward and in schools across the city. Our staff and volunteers help students improve young people’s literacy skills, become published authors, and understand the power of their voices on and off the page. Since 2010 we’ve served over 8,000 students and created over 100 publications of student work with the help of over 400 volunteers.

We believe every student, especially those whose voices have been historically marginalized, deserves to write their truths and to be heard. Our creative writing and literacy programs focus on celebrating the humanity of our young people by actively being anti-racist and trauma-informed.

Culture & Work Environment: 826 New Orleans is part of 826 National, an award-winning national network of youth writing centers. In addition to being an integral member of the 826 National network, 826 New Orleans plays a vital role in the local community. Our program team members have been recognized and honored locally, nationally, and internationally.

826 New Orleans cultivates a creative and courageous workplace. We value innovation and collaboration. We strive to be supportive and accommodating to employee needs for scheduling and work styles, and aim to create a humanizing work environment that prioritizes work/life balance.

At 826 New Orleans, we believe in a fundraising model that focuses on channeling resources back into the populations we serve. Our students are at the center of our decision-making. We believe in building strong funding relationships that are transparent, and we consider our donors to be important parts of our larger community. We are actively seeking ways to connect with other organizations, as we are advocates of mutual support.

About Our Budget: 826 New Orleans has an operating budget of $950,000. Our revenue is made up of a combination of foundation support, committed donor base, and corporate support.
